

Data as of May 20, 2014.

Includes U.S. commercial banks, savings banks and savings institutions with assets less than $20 billion in all first quarters from 2006 to 2014. Nonaccrual loans are adjusted to exclude loans guaranteed by the U.S. government and FDIC loss-share agreements.

* Represents nonaccrual loans as a percentage of total loans and leases for all U.S. banks, including those with more than $20 billion in assets. ^ Represents nonaccrual loans as a percentage of total loans and leases.

Total loans and leases include loans held for sale.

Data is based on regulatory filings.

Source: SNL Financial

